JULY 2022

I am a link in the Buddha's golden chain of love that stretches around the world. I must keep my link bright and strong. I will try to be kind and gentle to every living thing and protect all who are weaker than myself. I will try to think pure and beautiful thoughts, to say pure and beautiful words, and to do pure and beautiful deeds, knowing that on what I do now depends not only my happiness or unhappiness, but also that of others. May every link in the Buddha's golden chain of love become bright and strong, and may we all attain perfect peace.

Buddha's Eyes

When I look at the recent news, it seems that there is nothing but tragedies that are occurring in our world today. As we approach the Fourth of July, I think it is also important to reflect on the fact that this nation was—and always has been—in a fragile state. I recently watched parts of the hearings regarding the events that took place on January 6th, 2021, and it is very obvious now just how close this nation came to collapsing that day. I found myself getting so angry at certain groups of people and the former leadership of this country over what almost happened to this nation.

The other day, I was washing the dishes and watching the news and there was a segment on the Ukraine and Russia war. It was an extremely tragic story of how disabled children were being abandoned by their families who, in desperation, fled the country without them. There was one such child, and he was crying over and over, “Momma, momma,” not knowing where his mother had gone. You could hear the sadness in his cries, as he reached out his hand to the news person covering the story. I have to admit—I couldn't continue washing dishes and sat there crying. Then I thought about who caused this to happen, and I can only think of one person: Putin. I think about how enraged I get over people like this who are the culprits in causing so much pain and anguish in this world. War is never good, there is never a winner in war, only pain.

But as I sit and reflect upon what it is that Buddhism teaches us about these unfortunate set of circumstances, I have to remember that Buddhism is not about vanquishing evil and fighting for good. This kind of dualistic thinking in actuality foments further destruction and anger. Rather, Buddhism is about bringing those who have gone astray, back on the right track.

The zenmonshu, former head priest of the Hongwanji, states the following: “The goal Buddhism sets up for itself is to go to the rescue of those who have lost their way. And the person who is lost, once they realize they are wandering and lost, naturally returns to the correct path—this is the basic thinking here. Thus, it is not a person who is mistaken that must be punished. A person who is deep in the state of bewilderment must be quickly pulled out of it.”

When it comes to ethics and justice, indeed we have to hold accountable those who are causing these great atrocities and stop them from happening further. However, from a spiritual standpoint, we have to take that one step further by understanding that the true resolution to the issue of suffering is not about snuffing out evil and fighting for justice. Absolute truth is not about the issue of good versus evil. Instead, we first have to see the correct path: the path of the Buddha Dharma. And one of the key understandings of this teaching is that all beings are equal in the eyes of enlightenment. Therefore, we should be guided by the truth that unity and peace are part of the Buddha's world of enlightenment, and that we should strive to be in alignment with those goals, because that is the way of the Buddha. Despite our many instances of failing at this, we should endeavor to adhere to these principals.

When we turn ourselves over and truly receive the Buddha's Great Compassion, we want to act in a way that is consistent with how the Buddha sees all beings. If we truly understood the Buddha's Great Compassion, would we want to create a war that makes families leave behind their children with certain disabilities? If we can get a glimpse into seeing what the Buddha sees, that all beings are equal, would we want to create a society that creates divisions between groups of people in order to serve our personal interests? Buddhism teaches us to be far more empathetic of other people's circumstances.

This is what this religious teaching has to offer. When we come to understand the Buddha Dharma, or Amida Buddha's Great Compassion, we realize that truth is not about pitting "Self" against "Other," but rather, recognizing the equality of all beings in the eyes of the Buddha.

ほとけめ 仏の眼

最近のニュースをみていますと、大変悲しい事件がたくさん出てきます。来る7月にはアメリカの独立記念日のお祝いが毎年あります。しかし、2021年1月6日に首都ワシントンで起きた悲惨な事件についての捜査発表が最近ニュースで放送されました。

そのことで明らかになったのが、この国がもう少しで滅びるところだったとのこと。この事件が起きた原因を考えてみますと、前の大統領しかないと思い、非常に怒りの気持ちを感じますね。

話は変わりますが、この間家の事をしながらニュースを見ていましたら、非常に悲しい話がまた出てきました。それは、ウクライナとロシアの間の戦争についてでした。それによると今までの住み場所がロシアからの攻撃により危険になり他の国に避難された家族がたくさんいたそうです。そしてその家族たちの中に体の不自由な方や、精神障害者が何人かいたそうでした。深刻な状況に追い込まれてその子供たちの面倒を見ることができなくなった家族がいくらかでたのです。そして悲劇が起こりました。その親たちがその子供をその場に置いていかれたそうなのです。こういうケースが数多くでたらしいのです。何と悲しい辛いことでしょう。私が見たあるニュースでは一人の少年が「ママ、ママ」と必死になって呼びかけていた姿が映し出されていました。テレビキャスターの手を必死に握り、「自分のお母さんを探してください」と拜むように頼んでいました。私はそれを見て家事が続けられませんでした。心が破裂しそうになってしまい、涙がぼろぼろと流れました。

このような恐ろしい戦争は誰が原因なのかと考えてみますと、プーチン大統領しかありませんですね。ここでまた怒りを感じます。戦争って本当に恐ろしいものですね。戦争には勝つ者は誰一人もいません。結局、皆が苦しむ訳です。

このようなニュースをみますと、仏教はどのようなことを教えているのでしょうか。仏教は善と悪の戦いを中心として世の中を見るのではないのです。そのような二元的な考え方は人生に関する「苦悩」の本当の解決に達成することができないのです。そうではなく、仏教は正しい道（正法）から離れた人たちを取り戻すことではないかと思います。

西本願寺の前門主は次のように述べていらっしゃいます。「仏教は道に迷っている人を救うのが目的であり、迷っている人も、自分の迷いに気付いて正しい道に帰っていくというのが基本的な考えです。ですから、間違った人が処罰されるのではなく、反対に奥深く迷ってしまった人ほど早く助け出さねばならないのです…したがって、どちらが立派な人かという問題ではなく、今、急を要するのは誰かということです」とあります。

倫理や正義のことは、犯罪を犯す者に責任をとらせなければなりません。しかし本当の宗教は倫理や正義の問題にとどまらず、それより一歩進めていかなければなりません。人間の苦しみの解決は悪を倒し、善を満たすところにはないのです。「真実」は善と悪の枠内を越えているのです。ですから、まず私たちは正しい道と出逢わなければなりません。それは仏法です。これを正法とも呼びます。また、正法には一切衆生は平等であり、そして仏の悟りである涅槃は寂静の世界であると説かれています。つまり、争いのない世界のことです。現実的には戦争の苦しみが無いということです。仏教徒はこの原則を基にして努力をしていくことが一つの大事なポイントであるのではないかと思います。

What's Up Dharma School?

Despite the challenges of COVID once again, we were able to hold another full year of Dharma classes this year. Unlike last year, we were able to conduct hybrid services and classes starting in April and had the opportunity to hold an actual in-person graduation presentation this year.

After presentations of the graduates in the hondo, we were able to spend time in the Sangha Hall with a spaghetti otoki and cake with the Dharma class, families, and Sangha. A HUGE thank you to our DS and Jr.YBA Alumni, Russell Yamasaki, for single handedly serving us all at the otoki luncheon.

Congratulations to our seniors: Yumi, Bryce, and Chance. It's been an amazing journey to see you all grow and mature into compassionate human beings. We thank you for letting us be part of that journey.

We'd also like to thank

- SACBC Sangha-we appreciate your support throughout the year from participating in Keirokai, enjoying our DS Hanmatsuri presentations, to our Graduation Otoki.
- Kathy Jang-for being our treasurer and has graciously volunteered to continue for next year.
- Emily Carpio- for helping us coordinate and reserve for our Dharma school activities at the temple.
- Karen Fuji-for providing BEC support and coordinating the monthly service plan.
- Kyle Yamasaki-putting us into zoom breakout rooms and zoom support
- Rev.Miyaji-for working with us on every dharma lesson. Appreciate your time!

And finally, to the Dharma School parents...thank you for your support with all the challenges we had again this year. We appreciate your effort to have your child be part of Dharma school and hope our class enhanced sensei's Dharma message about the teachings of the Buddha (and also had some cultural fun!).

Wishing everyone a great summer and stay healthy!

In Gassho,

Cathleen and Betty

A few words from our Senior Graduates...

Yumi

I am graduating from Amador Valley High School in Pleasanton and I plan to go on to major in biology at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

I would like to thank my teachers, advisors, ministers, family members, and the whole church community for helping to shape me into the person that I am today. I would not be where I am without your wisdom and calm, patient hands guiding me through the trials of growing up. A special thank you to my dharma school and Jr. YBA advisors: Auntie Betty, Auntie Cathleen, and Uncle Kyle for going above and beyond to help support me. I can't thank you enough for always answering my frantic emails or driving far to deliver supplies for the next dharma school class.

I have fond memories of growing up whirling around to music at the Obon festival or developing sales skills at the bazaar pantry. The elders at church taught me to tie a kimono properly and how to pound mochi. It is through my church experience that I feel more connected to my Japanese ancestry.

As I pause at this milestone, Rev. Miyaji's lesson of "okagesamade" comes to mind. I am deeply grateful to both the past and present SACBC community that has provided such a special place for a young child to grow into an adult.

I look forward to coming back to visit!
In Gassho,
Yumi

Bryce

I just graduated at Amador valley. I plan to go to college at Cal State Fullerton and major in pre business. I want to thank my friends from school and dharma school for helping me learn and get through my childhood. I want to thank my parents for everything they have provided for me. The one memory I had was the first YBA meeting I went to, I really didn't know what to expect and it was the first time I met Chance. I also remember all the volleyball tournaments we did and all the practices we had. Volleyball was fun for a lot of us since it was a sport where not many of us played before so everyone was learning how to play and get better. I also remember all the bazaars we had, and the smell of the barbecue, I miss having them and I hope we can have one soon.

Chance

Chance writes "My favorite Dharma talks were always the ones about blind passions. Limiting forms of blind passions has helped me reconnect with the real world more and treasure the things in life that are much more valuable than weekly hours spent on social media and playing video games. Focusing myself away from these greedy passions it able to allow me to focus on my journey one step at a time.
